Five Parties On Officer's Ballot

The November General Election will be held in Michigan next Tuesday, November 4th. Polls in Crawford County as well as throughout the state will be open from 7 a. m. until 8 p. m. With several groups cooperating in "get out the vote" campaigns, hopes are high that a record turnout will take place at the polls.

Balloters in Crawford County will be given four separate ballots to vote. First, of course, is the state and county officer's ballot, a ballot to vote on a state constitutional convention and two ballots in reference to a new Crawford County Jail. Two ballots are necessary on this referendum as one is for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the building and the other to increase the tax limitation one vote to provide the money for the sinking fund.

State Poverty Question To Wait Until After November Election

POVERTY IN STATE—Legislation can wait until after the Nov. 4 election.

Leaders of both parties are happy about the decision of a legislative study committee to hold up its final report and recommendations until after voters go to the polls.

They know there will have to be new taxes if the state is to avoid a $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 deficit by next June 30. The present tax pattern is described as a "patchwork" put together to meet the needs of the state.

Parts of the new plan almost leaked out before top candidates headed for the hustings of harvest votes.

The first leak developed last winter when Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the committee, released a tentative report favoring the increase in the intangibles tax.

For weeks, there was conjecture that all bank deposits and the fixed incomes of old folks would be raided.

To make it worse, Gov. Williams supported the idea as the top Democrat. This brought both parties into the fray and the taxpayer sat on the edge of his chair, empowered only to worry.

The legislature finally dropped the idea as Conlin pleaded for more time to develop his whole program, rather than run with the ball after only one of several ideas had been pursued more time and more facts were required.

Through the summer the research people for the committee worked.

Ominous sounds of an income tax for Michigan came from several sources.

Democrats, led by Williams to abhor anything that sounds like a consumer tax (and only people pay non-consumer taxes, too) are saying privately it is "the fairest tax of all."

U-M Prof. Harvey E. Brazier, research director of the legislative tax study, casually mentions the income tax idea and charges that the legislature must get down to work in 1959 and seek out new sources of revenue.

Officially, nothing has been said about any new tax. But, wherever candidates gather, they know what faces the state in 1959 and also that the income tax is the last new source of sizeable revenue.

Brazier's proposals, he promised, will come up with ideas the legislature can use for "new sources of revenue, but without hurting business and industry."

INVESTIGATORS on legislative interim committees have come up with one governmental ill administrative agencies might have trouble explaining away.

They are charging that agencies are spending more time looking for loopholes than trying to follow legislative intent.

Highway officials spent $52,000 for a touring information lodge at Mackinaw City. Legislators said they did it without legislative authority in the appropriation bills.

Highway officials said the legislature had not forbidden that use of the money.

Senator L. Harvey Lodge (R-Drayton Plains) said he could think of 1,001 things the legislature did not forbid the highway department to do.

Mental health officials were charged with improperly using money to remodel the home of the superintendent of Ionia State hospital.

The reason was identical — nothing in any law barred them from using the funds.

Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) said that in both cases the legislature had opportunity to approve the items but did not. That, he said, established legislative intent.

The Lodge committee is looking for other expenditures, not disapproved — but not approved, either.

"The legislature has got to fight for its place in the sun," said Hutchinson.

So, he said, appropriations bills will be written in much more detail with language specifying a great number of things for which the money cannot be used.

Many of them can be covered in short, crisp blanket phrases, but Hutchinson said the bills would be longer and — perhaps — harder to understand.

A Rising Problem . . .

"At no other time in history has it been more imperative to establish order and peace in the world than it is today. Man always has possessed the capacity to destroy himself. Today, he possesses the capacity to destroy the world. He has the responsibility to formulate, interpret, and enforce laws not only to shape the future of mankind, but also to insure his preservation."

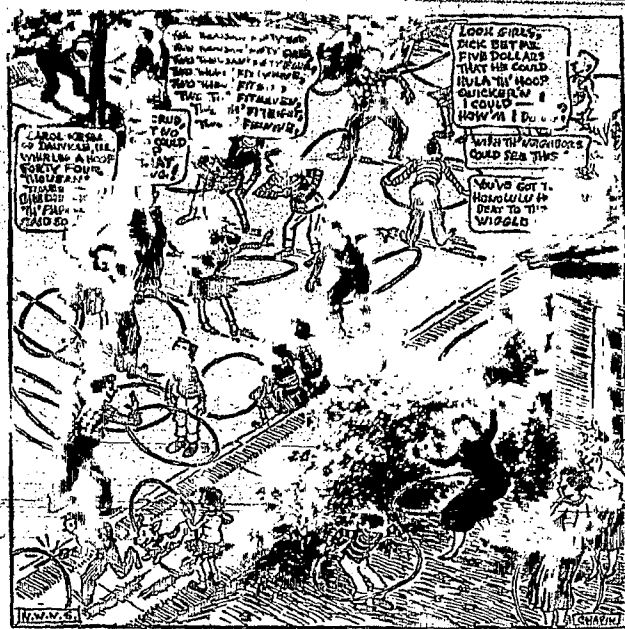

This was said by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in an address before an American Bar Association meeting in Los Angeles. And the future of the human race, he went on, was never more in jeopardy than it is now—because of the powerful, lawless conspiracy which is world communism.

Mr. Hoover cites a recent study showing that over a period of 38 years the Soviet Union has agreed to nearly 1,000 treaties, and has broken its word to nearly every country to which it has given an assigned promise. At the same time, world communism has the potential to destroy the free world—and in Mr. Hoover's view, this can be traced in large measure to the lawless subversive and espionage activities by communists in our own and other countries. Communist agents are at work in the United States. They seek knowledge of our technological and scientific developments and they take advantage of every legal technicality to nullify our security precautions. They attempt to foster the myth that the Communist Party is a legitimate and independent political party—whereas, actually, . . . American communists are an integral part of the international communist conspiracy which was born in tyranny and which has been nurtured by tyranny."

Mr. Hoover poses a question: Are we prepared to meet the communist threat? As he sees it, to be prepared, "our nation must be as representative of law and order as world communism is of lawlessness and disorder." Here we seem to be registering a dismal failure. Since 1950, for instance, crime has increased four times as fast as the population. The estimated annual cost of crime is $22 billion—or $128 for every man, woman and child in the country. To put it another way, crime costs $1.11 each year for every $1.00 spent on education—and for every dollar we contribute to churches, crime costs us $12.

Mr. Hoover touches on the grave problems facing the law enforcement agencies. Under our system, society must be protected from the criminal, but, at the same time, it must not encroach on the rights of the individual. Protection of the innocent is a fundamental legal principle. But, he feels, frequently "emphasis is placed on the rights of the accused to the obvious exclusion of the rights of law-abiding citizens." Here he adds: "Carried to extremes, this tendency can actually infringe upon the freedom of all individuals—of society itself." He cites examples where criminal convictions have been reversed for absurd reasons. In one instance, the indictment of a man for drowning his wife and child was dismissed because it did not specify the kind of liquid in which they were drowned. In another case, the indictment of a hitchhiker for stomping a motorist to death was dismissed because it failed to state that the murdered used his feet "with his shoes on."

HOOP, HOOP HOOP LAI

As Mr. Hoover sees it: "The final responsibility for protecting the innocent rests upon our courts. However, some courts, in discharging this responsibility, seem to be guided by a tendency to be overly solicitous of criminals. Misapplied leniency adds to the already serious problems in the administration of parole and probation. It also aggravates the rising problem created by the criminal repeater."

October 3, 1935

Last Saturday three auto loads of Boy Scouts traveled to East Lansing where they were guests of the Michigan State College Athletic Association at the Michigan State-Grinnell football game. The day was a perfect one and there were in the neighborhood of 3,500 Boy Scouts present, making the crowd a very colorful one. At the half the Scouts paraded around the cinder track of the stadium. A score or more American flags massed behind the leading band and the numerous scout troops with their flags presented a sight that few scouts will forget. The Troop wishes to thank Mr. Welsh for taking one load and for sending a second car with another load, also T. P. Peterson for sending a car and Mr. Poor for driving one of the cars.

Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald in a ringing appeal to good citizenship made in an address last week demanded that the patronage civil service system be established in Michigan. He referred with much feeling to his own problems which so hampered his work in the early days of his administration. A civil service commission is to be appointed soon and it is planned that its proposals be submitted to the legislature, possibly in a special session.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

"Consumers Marketing Information Co-operating with County Extension Service"

October starts pork marketing season. The Spring pig crop is coming to market in full force and as supplies increase, prices will decrease accordingly. Prices to producers will probably drop from the present $20.50 per hundred pounds to $17 to $18 per hundred. In retail markets, price decreases will come about 2 weeks after price decreases to producers. Why do you pay what you pay for pork in the market? The farmer is paid for his work, of course. Since a pig in a feedlot isn't much use to you, you pay for the services of getting the pig to you in the cuts and sizes of cuts you want to buy.

Consider too . . . you don't eat all of the pig. From 100 pounds live weight of pig, about 47 pounds are major fresh and cured pork cuts. Another reason for the price you pay is . . . popularity. Some cuts of pork are simply more popular than others. Use pork loin roast and Boston butt for examples.

Both pork loin and Boston butt have excellent pork flavor and both can be roasted in dry heat. In addition, Boston butt makes up only about 3 per cent of the pork carcass, compared to loins which make up about 14 per cent. It seems that, since there is less butt than loins to a pig, Boston butt should cost more per pound than does loin roast. This is not usually the case.

If you pay 50 cents per pound for Boston butt roast, you may pay 50 cents per pound for end cut loin roast at 65 cents a pound for center . . . roast . . . If you want the best cut . . .

Are you really sure about your auto insurance? Remember, you only get the kind of protection you pay for. You get more protection and service for your money with an Auto-Owners policy — broader than most policies. Come in and let us show you that the BEST insurance, Auto-Owners, is also the most economical.

chops, the price may be $1 per pound. You are paying for the service of having chops cut, but between the price of the pork chops, popularity is most of the answer.

Another point for popularity of pork loins . . . Boston butt is 87 per cent edible meat, pork loins are 87 per cent edible meat. Here again, it looks as if the higher proportion of edible meat should command the higher price per pound. When you consider the price you pay for pork . . . look at the service you get and then look at popularity.

R. L. D. S. News
The Editor for church news was privileged to spend a week attending General Conference world-wide, held every two years in Independence, Missouri. The usual time for conference is April, due to getting the main Auditorium completed, and dedicated conference was postponed until this October, 5-12. It was the largest gathering since the centennial in 1900. That date marked the first one hundred years since the Church of Jesus Christ was restored again to earth. The first day of conference, 18,000 members were served. The Communion

The week was packed with inspiration and experiences which only those attending can fully understand. It is possible, though, to get a portion of the spirit of it by looking at certain features through the eyes of another. The reorganization of the First Presidency and the Council of Twelve in harmony with the revelations was the high point of interest. The church has another strong leader with vision and courage to stand at the head and represent Christ. The Saints went to their homes assured that the church is on the move.

"Our Heritage of Enduring Power," the theme for October, was presented in a Devotional service as the woman's department met at the home of Flora Vandenberg, October 9th, at 1:30. Business and the lesson were in order for the afternoon.

Sunday, October 12th, during the morning service, Stuart John, infant son of Mr. and Mrs.
Bernard Fowler was presented before the servants of God to be Blessed. Those officiating were Elder Roy Newberry, pastor, and Elder John Abby of Owadate, Mich. The choir rendered a beautiful selection "We pray Thee Bless This Child of Thine" with Flora Vandenberg at the piano.

The Church school is enjoying the new material, wishing there could be more children to share it with. Something thrilling and inspiring each Sunday. "Looking for a Church" was the subject title given by Dan Babbitt in his discourse presented at the eleven o'clock hour, October 19th.

Leta Babbitt was hostess at the Social meeting of the Women's Department which met in her home on October 23. Helen Jensen, Pat Fowler and Cynthia Knecht were on the committee for luncheon at noon. The afternoon was given to devotion by Helen Jensen; lesson, by Helen Mathewson;
and a class of inspiration given by Mrs. Babbitt, as she gave to the ladies many of her pictures and thoughts gathered while at General Conference. Mrs. Babbitt also gave a short lecture at the church school hour last Sunday on the new literature the school has the privilege of enjoying in class work.

Dale Christopher of Traverse City was the speaker at the eleven
A. M. hour last Sunday with Norval Stephan assisting.

Last Sunday evening an Ordination service was held at the little church to ordain Norval Stephan the office of Priest, and his son John to the office of Teacher, both of the Aaronic Priesthood. Elder Merle Hartford of Gaylord, District president of Northern Michigan, and Elder Roy Newberry held their hands upon the heads of Norval and John to confirm through this Holy Ordinance. John leaves soon for Florida. We will miss him. We wish him "God Speed, and protection with his new responsibility."

The members held their annual business meeting at the church last Thursday night, Oct. 22nd.
Norval and John Stephan and

Dan Babbitt attended the Priesthood class held at the Gaylord church last week on Friday night.
This week Wednesday night the church members and friends are invited to join the Gaylord Saints to be present while their paper discusses the Great General Conference.

The Zion's League has been busy. They held their worship service last Monday, October 20, at the church. Team Volland in charge. John Stephan and Helen Jensen assisted the League during the presentation of a drama, entitled "It is Written". It was history of "Exploring the Scripture."
Everyone should know that the Bible didn't just drop down out of Heaven, and God and Christ wrote it.

The League held their recreation this past Monday night at the home of "Butch" Jensen, Hartwick Pines. It was a Halloween party. Much fun, and with honey-dipped friedcakes and cider, everyone had a good time. Thanks to Butch's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Leonard Jensen.

Class Observes United Nations Day

The thirteenth anniversary of the United Nations on October 24th was observed in the fourth grade of the public schools with Mrs. Emil Giegling as teacher and director.

The work of preparation took place over a period of four weeks and was developed as a unit of work, which culminated in observance of the day. A particular emphasis was placed on the playing of a flag of a particular nation with an oral report and location of the nation on the World Map.

The flags were made by the children giving the report and are displayed in a United Nations spread over a portion of the room.
This spread includes pictures of different organizations within the UN and a miniature replica of the United Nations Plaza and buildings.

In order that a better understanding of these countries should be had, stories for children with background in certain countries were included, as well as discussion of newspaper articles and pictures. TV stories and news about people, stories in the children's geography text, pictures, dictionary and atlas were used during the unit. The flag making included measuring and dividing as well as exact color concepts.

A box of donations for the UN-ICEF for children in these languages will be added to those of other organizations funds on Thursday for "trick and treat."

Thirty-three children participated in this United Nations Day.

JONES - WALSH WED IN BAY CITY

Miss Beverly Louise Jones of Bay City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jones of Grayling, was united in marriage with Joseph Michael Walsh of Bay City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Walsh of Port Austin, Mich., in an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday morning, October 4th, at Holy Trinity church in Bay City. The Rev. Fr. Aloysius P. Hafner performed the ceremony before members of the immediate family.

The bride, who given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a pale blue sheath dress of Cupion silk, with round neck and quarter-length sleeves, with overskirt of pale blue tulle under white Chantilly lace. Her matching plateau headpiece was trimmed with small bows and seed pearls, and she wore a circular face veil. She carried a white missal topped with a white orchid tied with white satin ribbon in a bow.

Maid of honor was Miss Darlene Gower of Bay City. She wore a pale pink antique satin sheath dress with round neck and quarter length sleeves, circled at the waist by a contrasting pleated cummerbund ending in a wide sash in back. Her matching headpiece was trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a white rose and carnation corsage.

George E. Walsh, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The mother of the bride was dressed in a navy blue sheath with matching jacket and velvet hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue dress with matching hat. Both had corsages of white roses and pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast was held at the Turkey Root for the wedding party and families following the ceremony. The young couple left on a honeymoon trip around Lake Erie, through Ohio and Pennsylvania and New York to Niagara Falls, Canada, returning to Bay City through Ontario, Canada. For the trip the bride chose a light brown wool dress with dark brown accessories, and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh are at home now at 401 N. Chilson St. in Bay City.

GRAYLING MICH.

Annual Audit of City of Grayling

September 18, 1958
THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
CITY OF GRAYLING, MICHIGAN
I have examined the balance sheets as of June 30, 1958, of the GENERAL FUND (INCLUDING GENERAL FIXED ASSETS AND RELATED BONDED INDEBTEDNESS), CEMETERY, PERPETUAL CARE AND MAUSOLEUM FUNDS, ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER PLANT AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM FUND, WATER WORKS FUND, SEWAGE TREATMENT FUND, TRUST AND AGENCY FUND, and the CITY OF GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, and their related statements of revenues and expenditures for the fiscal year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances, except that I did not confirm the receivable items by direct correspondence with the debtors. In my opinion, except for the fact that I did not confirm the receivable items by direct correspondence with the debtors, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of revenue and expenditures present fairly the position of the several named funds of the CITY OF GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, at June 30, 1958, and the related transactions of these funds for the fiscal year then ended in conformity with generally accepted principles of municipal accounting applied on a basis consistent in all material respects with that of the preceding year.

Michigan drivers go 1st class!

For the new heavy-duty highways
— that count most...
the choice is modern CONCRETE!

On important Michigan highways already completed... on others now building
... on more still coming... concrete means tax savings and real dollar value

When you see a new concrete road—congratulate yourself on getting the best highway money can buy.

Michigan's newest concrete roads will last 50 years and more.

Even the older ones outlasted other pavements 2 to 1.
Upkeep will run as much as 60% less than for asphalt! Remember, even on the new Interstate System, where Uncle Sam pays 90% of the price of the highway, Michigan pays for the upkeep—every red cent of it. With concrete the initial cost isn't just a down payment.

Don't forget that gliding smooth ride you get on modern concrete. And the extra safety, too. Mighty reassuring—that grainy, skid-resisting surface—when you have to stop in a hurry. At night, light-reflecting concrete lets you see—doesn't kill light the way black pavement does.

These are just some of the reasons why concrete's the choice for Michigan's first class highways—especially for the new Interstate System.

chief culprit, it was responsible for less than half the death toll, about 42 percent. Next in line was accidental falls, which took 20, 282 lives. Fires and explosions were third, with 6,405.

In dollars and cents, the cost of accidents last year came to $11.9 billion, estimates the safety council, taking into consideration the fact that for every fatal accident there are over 100 others that are injury-producing. Included in this sum are wage losses, property damage, insurance, indirect losses in production and the like.

The local share of this cost, based on the accident picture in Crawford County, indicates an economic loss to the community of $1,004,000 in the year due to all accidents, fatal and non-fatal.
